ITALY GAINS ADDITIONAL SUCCESSES IN ALBANIA

Rome, Sept. 4 (via London), 7:45 a.m.—Italian troops have made additional gains in the northern and eastern parts of the kingdom of Albania, says an official statement.

Italy has now in a position to swing the whole country as he will, unhampered by any dissenting popular opinion or hostile parliamentary control.

The first step which placed full powers in the hands of the premier was taken when he forbade public gatherings last Wednesday. The arrangement of Friday whereby the issuance of the decree dissolving the now adjourned parliament and calling new elections was postponed indefinitely disposed effectively of any parliamentary interference with the policy of the government. Finally, the premier yesterday requested and received the unanimous support of the party of Venizelos and of the party opposed to Venizelos.
